REV. M. A. HART

Tells of the Roads That Make Kentucky Famous and Make Rome Great.

(Fulton, (Mont.) Gazette, Sept. 4.)

In the north central part of Kentucky is an area of 6,500,000 acres known as the blue grass region. In classic language one might say, the blue grass region is the garden spot of the world, and Woodford county is the asparagus bed. Here the decay and disintegration of the blue limestone gives vitality to the soil, strength to the hemp, ripeness to the fruit, fragrance to the flowers, and fecundity to the thoroughbred. But this is not all. In the individual that for one time only takes a drive through the blue grass behind one of Kentucky's thoroughbreds from Lexington to Mayville, Paris, Winchester, Versailles and other towns similar in size and location, cannot fail to be impressed with the good roads that make travel exceedingly pleasurable and delightful. For this blessing, we are also indebted in great part to the limestone formation.

The Romans were not only great in jurisprudence, but also famous as road builders. They were quick to see the strategic value of good roads from a military viewpoint. So we read that twenty-nine military roads centered at Rome, which with numerous branches had a total length of 52,964 Roman miles. According to one writer, miles marked the distances from all parts of the empire to a gilt column in the Forum at Rome. These roads were very durable—for example the Appian Way—but very expensive and often with grades so steep as to render portions unavailable for traffic. But they served well the purpose for which they were built. It would be well for us to profit by the foresight and wisdom of the Romans. We should have our actions governed by a higher motive. Some States and countries are awakening. They see the close relationship existing between good roads and a prosperous country. Travel through a State or country should be made both pleasant and profitable.

Let us consider the financial and pleasurable value of good roads in the blue grass. Two classes at least must be interested at this point, the class that seeks profit, and the class that seeks pleasure. During a recent visit to Kentucky, I asked some farmers what they considered the financial value of the turnpike with reference to the land sales. They were quick to agree that the turnpike increased the value of the best land from $15 to $25 per acre, and the second grade land from $10 to $15 per acre. This I am sure is conservative. An under, rather than an over estimate. One must also consider that this has reference only to increase in the price of land and does not take into consideration the facility for work, and that too during the entire year. Without good roads trade must, in great part, cease during five or six months of the year.

Here is a thought for the business man looking for profit, but what of the leisure man looking for pleasure? If while making a trip through the blue grass region one is able to take his vision from the waving fields of grain, pastures with their bleating flocks, lowing cattle, and graceful thoroughbreds, the commodious and often elegant and beautiful homes—I must admit that it takes real heroism to do it—he will see how these possess an added value and beauty, because of the turnpikes that make life in the country profitable, pleasant, in truth exceedingly delightful. Life is divested of much of its hum-drum and drudgery by intimate association with the beautiful.

This leads us to the study of another phase of the good roads question in the blue grass in particular and other localities in general. One cannot entirely eliminate, neither is it necessary, the financial and pleasurable value of easy and rapid transit through a country. Good roads are the veins and arteries of commerce. Along these the life of the country moves or flows. But we must look beyond pleasure and profit from a material point of view and consider the intellectual phase of the question. In fact, all our efforts should be directed toward the development of real men and real women, whether it be carried on in a direct or indirect way. Manhood, not money, should be the primary thought. Character, not currency, makes a nation great.

Schools in the country are often necessarily inefficient and positive failures because of the bad condition of the roads. Many days are lost by the children and at a critical period in life—the formative period. Not only does this result in a loss of time, but leads to other and often greater evils, namely, lack of purpose, discouragement, and the habit of doing things in a careless, indifferent, apathetic way. The country districts are being every year families that seek better educational advantages. Since "the child is father of the man," and since correct education is a wonderful factor in the making and development of the child, we see the wisdom of such a course. But where good roads make travel easy and rapid, the same educational advantages may be secured and yet live in the country. This is a problem that confronts us and the solution is not yet.

If churches are worthy of support, if they are recognized agencies for good, then why limit their usefulness to six or seven months in the year? And yet that is what we are practically doing in Callaway county. I am thinking we do not yet see the relation existing between good roads and good men.

If the people in the blue grass region of Kentucky enjoy a higher state of culture and civilization than the people of the mountains, it is not so much a difference in the blood that flows through their veins as in the life that moves along the turnpikes. In other words, rapid transit and daily touch of garments. Good roads and good religion will banish fenslism, redeem Kentucky, and give culture and civilization to the men of the mountains who are living in the past and speaking the language of Chaucer.

We have a good folk in the "Kingdom of Callaway" in both town and country. But we should not be satisfied. In the language of Lord Rosebery, "the country that is satisfied is lost." If then good roads will establish a closer bond of union, and secure progress along all lines, we should not rest content until they are secured. They have a financial, pleasurable, intellectual and spiritual value. May we be wise enough to enter this open door of progress.

NO TICKET

Will be Placed in Field by Labor Party and Populists.

No ticket will be placed in the field by the Allied People's party and the United Labor party for the November election. This was decided upon at the meeting of delegates from both parties held Wednesday in Louisville. The decision was unanimous. Instead of placing a ticket in the field the delegates to the convention resolved to endeavor to secure the support for the initiative and referendum of every State candidate in Kentucky for both branches of the Legislature. Failing in this, it may be decided upon later to place tickets out where no pledges can be secured.

The convention was a tame affair, there being about twenty delegates present when State Chairman W. B. Bridgeford called the meeting to order.

SUMMER COON

WIDE-A-WAKE.

The Lick Skillet campaign is on. I fired the first Beckham gun today in Lick Skillet, there were about seven thousand men in the crowd. I was told by sum of the old residents of the place, that it was the largest bunch of democrats that had bin in Lick Skillet since the woods burnt. Beckham will get a overwhelming majority there this fall. There were only three republicans in all the crowd and the war colored men. I heard two of them howling for Beckham. I will be dead as if I don't believe Beckham will carry the whole load this time. I am going all dip and down the line and everything is for Beckham, going and coming—just think of it! Let me tell you all sumthing boys, Belknap won't be a foot high in a dead edy—mark what I tel you! That letter, the Gazette, is wasting its ink and time about what Mr. Bristow said about the democrats at this day may aford the Gazette and Herald a little chin music between themselves. I am shure it will not cut any figure with any of our old iron bound all wool democrats. More then likely Mr. Bristow and Mr. Beckner wer raised boys together and wolloped there dogers together in the same skillet.

If you want a corrupt don't clear cut-throate administration, vote the republican ticket; if you would prefer a nice clean law respecting administration, vote the democrat ticket, that the whole load in a peanut shell. Of corse Simon, Bolive, Belknap, Buckner can blow there horns pretty well when the can muster a squad of there kind of material, together. Better stay closet around mumfordsville and take care of what little game the hav there—I tel you right now, Belknap and Buckner game is mighty scarce in these digings. Go on with that old slang about Beckham, its making Beckham more votes every day. Most any little kind of a voter nose what kind of a administration we would have under the republicans—dun tryd um befor, foold us once, don't want any more. Look how Taylor treeted us, run off to Indiana and left us the sack to holdie with the whole load. Spose we want any more summer gouvners like that. Simon Bowlines being mixed up in the republican huch factory cuts no figer in a democratic campaign, the gameite make a muske in putting down the mumfordsville figers had one ought to munny. It should have bin 700 insted of 7,000. I no a thing or to myself. My friend Belknap says he is out for a clean squar administration of State affairs. That may sound allright to sum of those old back sliding democrats thats got no holt on anything onley his shadow but he got on the rong ride of the fence to ketch the posum. You no wee ar all as squar as a pistol sum times when wee are chuck full and a sleep. Wherever the hen scratches there is durt seated a little, whither there is eny bugs there or not. To good but no mater.

SUMMER COON.

Lexington's Big Day.

The Lexington Trots commence Tuesday, October 6, and continue ten days. Every day there is a great stake trotted, and all the sensational harness horses of the East, North and West are entered, and meet here for the first time this year. Special trains from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Cleveland, laden with prominent horsemen from all over the United States and Canada, will start for Lexington on October 4th, and from all quarters comes the assurance that Lexington will end up the trotting season with racing that has never been seen before. Heat rates on all railroads have been secured, excursion rates to run from Kentucky points. The most important, the best race, and the best horse ever gathered together in Kentucky will be the attractions. Remember the dates, October 6 to 15th.

Democrats of Maryland on Race Question.

The Democrats of Maryland in convention at Baltimore nominated Edwin Wardlaw for Governor; Gordon T. Atkinson for Controller; and William Shepard Bryan for Attorney General. The race issue plank, which is regarded as one of the most important in the platform, declares for white supremacy in State, city and county government. The clause is as follows:

"We believe that the political destinies of Maryland should be shaped and controlled by the white people of this State, and while we disclaim any purpose to deny justice whatever to our colored population, we do not wish to reserve our resolute purpose to preserve in every concrete and constitutional case the political ascendancy of our race."

CLARK COUNTY ITEMS.

Parties are figuring with B. Fulton French in regard to building a roller flouring mill on the site of the building recently burned on Broadway.

There will be a tent meeting on the farm of Milton Johnson, on Donaldson, commencing the 18th. Rev. T. C. Johnson will do the preaching.

Miss Jessie Lee Tanner, only daughter of Jas. W. Tanner, died at her home in Winchester Tuesday morning, September 15, of typhoid fever, aged nineteen years.

Clark County Sunday School Association will be held at Salem Presbyterian Church, Pine Grove, Friday, Sept. 25th.

Prof. Fox, State Secretary, and Miss Frayer, State Superintendent of Primary Work, will take part in the program.

Mrs. Mary Yantis, wife of Elijah Yantis, died Wednesday afternoon at her home in Winchester, aged 23 years. She was the youngest daughter of Judge J. N. Conkright.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

To Be Voted On at the November Election.

CHAPTER 50.

An act to provide for an amendment to Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky.

"The General Assembly may, by general laws only, authorize CITIES OR TOWNS OF ANY CLASS to provide for taxation for municipal purposes, on personal property, tangible and intangible, based on income, licenses or franchises, in lieu of an ad valorem tax thereon;

"Provided, cities of the first class shall not be authorized to omit the imposition of an ad valorem tax on such property of any steam railroad, street railway, ferry, bridge, gas,
water, heating, telephone, telegraph,
electric light or electric power company."

Governor Beckham is in fine condition mentally and physically for a long and hot campaign. He has the sayings and doings of both parties by heart.

Judge Redwine will adjourn court at Campton and he will R. Riddell will head a horseback procession of 300 for Hazel Green to hear Gov. Beckham. Enthusiasm unbounded.

W. C. Owens used to "spize"
the man who allowed his name under a log cabin. Now he don't, for he may want pie again and through a log cabin may be the only way he could look for it.

The biggest crowd ever out to hear any speaker in Menefee was at Frenchburg Tuesday to hear Gov. Beckham. The leaders promise an increase majority in old Menefee. These majorities are promised from everywhere and may reach 50,000.

YIELDS.

Belknap has been forced to yield every point and now he presents
the old chestnut of inelegibility.
Having confessed his ignorance of the law it will be up to another.
Bill Owens may sing a song to him

LOOK OUT.

The grand jury is in session.
Progressive euchre players, crap shooters, slot machine operators, should look out.

COL. BELKNAP DOES WELL.

He entered the campaign seeing much, damaging to the administration, but advancing toward the dread monsters he realizes they are only shadows.

I WON'T READ.

A Republican that won't read will never be any thing but a Republican, and if the principles he advocates are harmful to the business interest, if they damage his business and that of his neighbor, it will always be that way for he won't read and therefore will never reason. If wrong when he starts will remain so until the Good Lord takes him from the earth.

Hon. Rolla Hart.

Monday at 1 o'clock the Democrats of the Third Railroad Commissioners' District met in convention to name a candidate. H. R.
Prewitt called the convention to order and after stating his object proceeded at once to organize.
Whereupon Judge H. M. Houston made temporary chairman and J. W. Hedden, secretary. The temporary organization was then made permanent and because there was only one candidate before convention the appointing of committees and their duties was dispensed with. Scutler Turner who had been a prospective candidate, in a few well chosen words placed the name of Hon. Rolla Hart of Fleming, before the convention. Nomination received, second by Mr. Jones, of Whitley. Mr. Hart was elected by acclamation and Judges Good-pastor, of Bath, Dickerson, of Bourbon, and Evans, of Clark, escorted Mr. Hart to the stand who pledged a hard fight and his best interests to win the race. After adopting the following resolutions offered by Hon. J. M. Kehoe, of Mayesville, the convention adjourned.

RESOLVED, That we, the Democrats of the Third Railroad District in convention assembled, again declare our allegiance to the eternal and beneficial principles of the Great Democratic Party and approve the calling of this convention and the State Democratic Primary election of May 9, 1903, and hereby renew our pledge of allegiance to the candidates nominated by this Convention and said primary.

We further heartily endorse the fair, honest, patriotic and economical conduct of the present State administration and pledge to the people a faithful continuance thereof.

Take Notice.

Mr. R. E. Hughes, Secretary of the Kentucky Exhibit Association, will be here on next Thursday in the interest of the World's Fair movement in Kentucky. He will look especially after the contributions of the county and city and will take pleasure in receiving private contributions. He will also take steps for the arrangement of the county's products in the Kentucky building at St. Louis. It is hoped our people will be exceedingly liberal and do their part in making it exhibit a profitable advertisement for Kentucky.

V. A. REIS.

BECKHAM AT MT. STERLING.

Of the 8,000 people in Mt. Sterling on last Monday at least 4,000 left off business for 24 hours to hear the distinguished speeches of Governor Beckham and Hon. Ollie James. Men who heard the Governor whether Democrats, Republicans or Prohibitionists knew he was telling the truth for he recited the records as kept under the various administrations. From the statements made by the speakers, Belknap and his associates have been busy hiding from pillar to post. The Governor was met at the C. & O. by a committee and the crowd gave evidence of the approval of his administration. At 2 o'clock p. m. he was introduced by Hon. H. B. Kingsolving, who went after Republicans with a mighty sharp blade. Mr. Kingsolving had not approved all the doctrines of his party and for this reason Republicans had hoped to win the silver-tongued orator and all of those who had not heard of his decision on political matters were much disappointed to see him in line and ready for a fight, for a honest business administration. In beautiful terms he referred to what did not appear in his lusty cheers. We give extracts only of what did not appear in his opening speech. The Governor defended himself from charge of misuse of pardoning power by comparison with two last administrations; that he had used it far less frequently in all grades of crime than had either Governor Brown or Bradley and he would not say they had not done right in their use of it. The statement that he had used it for political purposes he branded as false. The Breathitt troubles are a settled and for the murder of Mr. Marcus, republican, the perpetrator of that awful crime would be punished. He here gave the history of the dealings of Republicans with assassins.

The Governor gave a condensed account of his stewardship, told of the vast amount of money collected by Mr. Calhoun at a comparatively light expense. That Kentucky had an increased debt under Republican administration and in less than a term under Democratic administration, and by the business methods at Gov. Beckham, our State debt made larger by Republicans has been wiped out lacking $85,000 and by January 1st 1904, there will be a million dollars in the treasury. Belknap failed to put in line of collection the amount due the boys under him and they are forced to pay 25 per cent for his collection. Governor added strength by coming, and honest unprejudiced men not for him here-tofore are blinking.

Hon. Ollie James was next introduced by W. A. Young. Mr.
Young was powerful in his denunciation of Republicanism, commended in glowing terms the present administration and named Mr. James as the man that could tell the people a few things. Mr. James gave a rousing and telling exhortation urging Democrats to their duty. The crowd were eager listeners to the close. Congressman Kehoe followed Mr. James and predicted a great majority for democracy.

Hon. H. R. Prewitt entertained at supper, Governor Beckham, Mr.
T. James, Graham Vreeland, Leeland Hathaway, C. W. Goodpastor, T.
H. and C. D. Grubbs, Senator Prewitt, M. A. Prewitt, W. A. Young and Henry Bosworth. Tuesday morning they went to Frenchburg and addressed a large enthusiastic audience.

ROBERTS & MARTIN.

In Trouble.

Some two years ago the wife of Lee Brown, of Menefee county, mysteriously disappeared and some thought she had become tired of her worthless husband and had left her home. Lee talked unfeelingly and at one time said "she has gone this time to a place from which she will never return." Officers suspected he had murdered his wife and were diligent and continuous in a search for the body all these years, and at last in a deserted place the skeleton of a woman was found. The facial and head bones bore marks of shot. Circumstances pointed to murder by the husband and Commonwealth's Attorney Lon Hoover made out a warrant and caused Brown's arrest.

An Old Paper.

Mr. Jas. H. Thompson has shown us a 4-page 4 column paper printed at Kingston, N. Y., January 4, 1800—Ulster County Gazette—giving announcement of the death of President George Washington, and other important matters. Mr. Thompson says that this paper was found among the papers of his father, who died in 1832.

Those new Fall Dress Goods at Grubbs, Hazelrigg & Co's are marvels of the weaver's art, and are fresh from the looms. Prices are the lowest and meet all competition.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. R. L. Baker, of the Moorehead Baptist Church, was here the first of the week.

Quarterly meeting at Zion next Saturday and Sunday by presiding elder, E. G. B. Mann.

Rev. J. S. Norris, of Georgetown, delivered two very interesting sermons at the Baptist Church on last Sunday.

Prayer meeting at First Presbyterian Church Wednesday night at 7.50. Topic: "The Barren Fig Tree." Usual services next Sunday morning and evening.

SerVICES at the Assenion Episcopal Church every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and afternoon at 4 o'clock. Pews free and everybody invited to these services.

Rev. W. J. Bolin will be here next Sunday and will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist Church morning and evening. His many friends have a cordial invitation to hear him at these services.

DEATHS.

LUMPKINS—Thos. Lumpkins, of Ezel, who was recently taken to the asylum died at Lexington the 14th, and taken to Ezel for burial.

BARNES—Mrs. Geo. O. Barnes, wife of the noted evangelist, died at Sanibel Islands, Fla., last week. Because of break in wires by storm no particulars could be learned.

HUTCHISON—Miss Artie Hutchison, aged 14, daughter of R. R. Hutchison, near Peytons Lick, died of scarlet fever on Tuesday, September 15, 1903. She had been sick only two days.

MCCARTY—On yesterday at St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington, Mike McCarty died from nervous prostration. His son Lev is very low with typhoid fever and his death is expected at any moment. Mr. McCarty's remains will be brought here Friday morning, and after funeral services at the Catholic Church his remains will be buried in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. McCarty was a good citizen and his demise is deeply deplored.

Boons Creek Association.

The Boons Creek Association met with the Ephesus church, Clark county, Wednesday of last week. The editor of the Advocate and Mr. S. P. Hunt, representing Bracken Association were there from the second day. The audience was very large, possibly as many as 2,000 being present on the second day. Judge J. N. Conkwright was re-elected moderator. W. D. Strode, clerk, and W. P. Heatt assistant clerk. Mr. Conkwright was kept away second and third days on account of the serious sickness of his daughter, who died at 2 o'clock 2d day. Mr. Green Garrett was made moderator pro tem. Of the ministers present we noticed R. French, B. Bailey, T. C. Stackhouse and J. T. Turpin.

VISITORS.

Bro. S. F. Thompson, Long Run G. W. Argabright, Georgetown College; Wm. McMillan, of Elk Horn, Association, Lewis Sanderlin, Land Mark, L. C. Eeton, North Bend, and Messrs J. W. Hedden and S. P. Hunt Bracken. Much interest in the work of the brethren. At 12 o'clock we looked out upon a fine crowd feasting on the fat of Clark county. Every body, messenger and visitor were well entertained and half as many more could have been abundantly fed. The preaching, praying, singing and giving were of a free spirit. It was good to be there. The contributions of the various churches aggregated $5-248.58. The Association meets in 1904 with the church at Kidville.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

On Thursday evening The Young Matrons' Club entertained at the home of Mrs. Roger Gatewood. This most beautiful residence was elaborately decorated with palms, ferns and smiles. Upon arrival the guests were welcomed by Misses Carolyn Reid, Mary Gatewood and Laura Williams. Mrs. Gatewood was assisted in receiving by Mesdames John Botts, Dillard Hazelrigg, Harry Hoffman, Stockwell Samuels, Patsy Riley, John Barnes, Roger Barner, Dan Prewitt, Lawrence Gatewood, Will Strossman, C. T. Hazelrigg and Will Duty. A string band discoursed sweet music. Misses Carrie Anderson and Minnie Duerson presided in the dining room. Misses Louise Hoffman and Susette Johnson served punch. Delicious refreshments consisting of brick ice, individual cakes, mints and almonds were served. The dining room was a bower of beauty.

Our display of fall and winter hats at our opening Oct. 1, 2 and 8, will be worth seeing.

GLAD TO DO IT.
This Mt. Sterling Woman Will Supply the Desired Information.

A Mt. Sterling lady who has derived great benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, offers to tell any townsman about her experience. Read this convincing statement:
Mrs. Mary Kelley, wife of Peter Kelley, farmer, living outside the city limits on the Winchester pike, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were so beneficial and positive in their results that I am compelled to place great faith in them. I was troubled to quite an extent and with a complication of kidney troubles. The symptoms were so marked as to leave no possibility of doubt in my mind as to what kind of medicine I required, so on noticing some testimonials of the strongest kind endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills, my husband procured a box for me at F. C. Duerson's drug store. On taking them I was convinced that the advertised statements concerning Doan's Kidney Pills were nothing short of the truth, for this good preparation absolutely performed what it promised. I can speak positively about the results obtained and will be only too pleased to give minute particulars to any lady who wishes them. My husband also used Doan's Kidney Pills and found the results entirely satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

CONGRESSMAN BOREING DEAD.
Was Prominent in Political and Financial Affairs.

At London, Ky., on Thursday morning the Hon. Vincent Boreing, Congressman from the Eleventh district, passed away suddenly after a lingering illness. Until late Wednesday afternoon it was thought there were excellent chances for recovery.

Congressman was taken ill at Livingston about September 1, and removed to his home at London. He was the only Republican Congressman from Kentucky.

He was born in Washington County, Tenn., November 24, 1839. The son of Murray Boreing, a farmer, who moved with his family to Laurel county, Ky., in 1847. He received his education at Laurel Seminary, in London, and afterward at Tusculum College, Greeneville, Tenn.

He served as a volunteer in the infantry from November 1, 1861, till the close of the Civil war, being commissioned First Lieutenant from the ranks by the Governor, in recognition of his bravery in action. He was severely wounded in the battle of Resaca, Ga., May 14, 1863, and suffered from this wound the remainder of his life.

At the close of the war he returned to Laurel county, was elected County Superintendent of Public Schools in 1868, and re-elected in 1870. In 1875 he founded and edited the Mountain Echo, now the oldest Republican weekly in the State, continuing in the newspaper business until he was elected County Judge in 1886. The following year he was chosen president of the First National Bank of London, Ky., which office he continued to hold up to the time of his death.

His highest ambition was realized when he defeated the Hon. John D. White in the primary, and the Hon. H. H. Tye in the regular election of 1898, which sent him as Representative to the Fifty-sixth Congress. He was re-elected in 1900 and again in 1902. Judge Boreing was also prominent in the affairs of the Methodist Episcopal church.

He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Martha Paris, of Laurel county. Of this union five children were born. His second marriage was to Miss Sarah, daughter of the late Judge Randall. Judge Boreing leaves an estate valued at several hundred thousand dollars.

DEVELOP INDUSTRIES.
In This Lies Future Success of the State.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TALK

Kentucky's Geographical Position and Economic Development Should Enable the State to Occupy a Place in the Front Ranks of Industrial Development.

No one in Kentucky has given more time to all propositions looking to State development than has Mr. Peyton N. Clarke, of Louisville, the Secretary of the Constitutional Amendment Committee authorized at the last State Commercial Convention, and there is certainly no person more able to review the benefits that will follow the adoption of this amendment. It is a pleasure, therefore, to give to our readers an interview with Mr. Clarke on this very important topic.

"The present Amendment should not be confused with a former Amendment, somewhat along the same line and which contained some objectionable features, which the present Amendment is entirely free from."

"You will understand, of course, that the proposed Amendment will not interfere in any manner with the present method of assessing real estate and personal property for State and County purposes. All towns and cities will continue, as heretofore, to pay taxes for State and County purposes under the present law, and the proposed Amendment, if adopted, will make it possible for any town or city in the State to secure an act of the Legislature, providing that in raising revenue for strictly local purposes, towns and cities of any class may substitute for the present ad valorem system, such licenses, franchise, and excise laws, in subjecting personal property to its fair share of the expenses of such towns and cities as may take advantage of the Amendment when adopted."

"The products of a State are its foundation of wealth, but its industries are the shiners of its financial strength. Without industries, which afford markets, in proximity to the products, the producers are badly handicapped, and if compelled to send their products to distant markets, where there is greater competition and increased expenses, as well as numerous losses, it is perfectly plain that the producer must suffer. On the other hand, by reason of increased industries at home, affording a market for our products, the conditions are immeasurably more favorable for the producer."

"Now, in order to secure more industries, which means more employment and more money to feed, we must encourage the establishment of new enterprises, and at the same time, by increasing the capacity of those already established, secure an ample home market for our home products."

"Other States have seen the wisdom of this policy and Kentuckians should not be slow to lag behind them. Our geographical position and enormous resources of wealth should enable us to occupy a place in the front ranks of industrial development, and the future welfare and prosperity of the State can be settled in a great measure by the adoption of the constitutional Amendment. Manufacturers and other industries cannot be induced to locate in this State while our taxes on such industries are greater than in other States with which we have to compete. Therefore, in order to secure the benefits our position and advantages entitle us to, we must be able to offer the same inducements as are offered by our neighbors. While the proposed Amendment will not change in any manner the present method of assessing real estate for State and County taxes, it must not be concluded that it will not greatly benefit the entire State."

"It is confidently believed that the new law will enable the assessors to disclose a vast amount of property not at present in reach of the assessors, and if this result should follow, the State would be an opportunity for an immediate and radical reduction in the tax rate for State and County purposes by which every taxpayer in the State would be directly benefited. The main advantage would be in the inducement to new industries to locate in our midst, new capital to seek investment in our farms, mines and rich timber lands, and by thus increasing our wealth and increasing the revenue, it would invariably follow of a reduction in the tax rate. It is a very simple proposition that the more property to tax, the lower the rate is necessary to secure the same revenue."

"A recent change in the Kentucky incorporation law has kept vast sums of money in the State which, before the change referred to, went to other States, and the numerous enterprises now being incorporated in Kentucky will continue to add to its revenue for all time to come, and if anyone has been damaged in any way by the change there has been no discovery of the fact.

"If Kentucky could gain so much by a simple change in the statutes, why should she not gain a great deal more by a change in the revenue law as proposed in the Amendment to be voted on in November.
This is a grave proposition and deserves due and careful study and action of our citizens."

WORLD'S FAIR NEWS NOTES.
Already 550 jars of fruit have been collected for Missouri's fruit display at the World's Fair.
Active construction operations have begun on the Pike at the World's Fair. The erection of the "Garden of Eden" and the "Irish Village" began recently.
Germany will make a complete and full exhibit at the World's Fair, including appliances, instruments, diagrams, etc., used in medical lectures.
A feature of Iowa's dairy exhibit at the World's Fair will be a statue in honor of John Stewart, the pioneer creamman of that State. It will be life-size and will be kept from in a glass case throughout the Exposition.

Among the vegetable curiosities in Missouri's agricultural display at the World's Fair will be a cucumber two and a half feet long, weighing four and a half pounds, and a head of cauliflower which measures eight and a half inches in diameter and weighs five and a half pounds.

MARKING SAMPLES.
Too much care can not be exercised by those gathering exhibits in all classifications. It is noted that every specimen is plainly marked with its name, name of grower, his postoffice address and county. On this subject the following ruling has been made by Frederic W. Taylor, Chief of the Department of Agriculture and Horticulture for the World's Fair: "All grains, grasses, vegetables and other natural products of every sort must bear printed labels of a form acceptable to the Chief of the Department, upon which shall be given the correct name of the product, the name of the producer, and the county or locality as well as State where grown."

Land owners on whose property the West Point manure pits will take place will receive, besides pay for all damages that result from the manure pits, five cents per acre for the use of the ground.

The Loveland Garrett Company has been incorporated in Winchester with $50,000 capital stock and will do a general timber and lumber business. They have bought 5,000 acres of timber land in Wolfe county.

No need to fear sudden attacks of cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhea, summer complaint of any sort if you have Dr. Fowler's Elixir of Wild Strawberry in the medicine chest.

Mother
Lost Reason After LaGrippe.
Daughter Had Frequent Spasms.
Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure Them Both.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is a specific for nervous debility and nerve pain, and effects a speedy and permanent cure.
"I feel it is my duty to let you know that your medicine has cured my little girl, of spasms. She commenced having them at the age of three. Our family doctor and the world's outwore them but she did not. We took her to another physician who said her trouble was epileptic fits in a mild form. He did her no good either. She was so nervous she could hardly walk. As I had already used Dr. Miles' Nerve and found it a good remedy for myself I commenced giving it to my child. I gave her in all ten bottles of the Nerve and one of the bottles of Purifier. That was over two years ago and she has not had an attack since we commenced the treatment. She is no longer troubled with nervousness and we consider her permanently cured. I enclose her picture. My mother-in-law lost her reason and was insane for three months from the effects of LaGrippe. Six bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerve cured her. My sister has also taken it for sick headache with good results. We all thank you very much for your good medicines and kind advice. I don't think there is any other medicine half so good. I send my daughter's photograph so that you may see what a sweet little girl lives out of the clutches of the Nerve Cure."

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS

Machines are cutting hemp in Clark county this year—6 to 8 acres per day, whereas by hand one-half acre is a good daily average.

L. Joseph bought in Clark the export cattle of I. C. Vannmeter, J. L. Brown, J. H. Croxton, N. P. Vannmeter and Benj. Franklin, averaging from 1,400 to 1,500 pounds, at $4.50 to $4.90.

L. C. Anderson, of North Middletown, sold to J. J. Keamon 12 acres of corn at $12 per acre. Caywood & Gilkey sold to same 10 acres at $15.50.

At Carlisle, H. M. Prewitt, of Mt. Sterling, bought 21 feeding cattle, 1,125 pounds weight, at $3.75.

The Kansas City Journal says two years ago a valuable horse belonging to Fred Gosney, of Moberly, got caught in a barbed wire fence and pulled a hoof off. Mr. Gosney refused to kill it, and it has since grown a complete new hoof, and is as good an animal as the day it was hurt. Mr. Gosney had the first hoof shed last week for the first time.

The Paris Kentuckian notes the sale of 1,484 export cattle prices ranging from 43 to 5 cents. Cas. Goff bought 950 of them.

Horses and mules in Louisiana are fed largely on rice, bran, molasses and some cowpea hay. The mules are allowed to eat molasses without any restriction, and they usually consume from 8 to 12 quarts a day. Director W. C. Stubb, of the Louisiana Station states that this ration keeps them in splendid condition, capable of lively action and hard work.

N. P. Gay, of Clark county, sold to the S. S. Co., 212 cattle, 1,475 lbs., at 5 cts.

Sept. Court.

About 2,000 cattle on the market. The quality was fair trade price, but at lower prices. A few bunches of 1,000 lb feeders sold at $3.60 but bulk of sales at 3.25 to $3.50, yearlings at 3 to $3.50. The latter price for some extra good ones. Heifers at 2 to 3 cts, cows at 1 1/2 to 2 cts, bulls at 2 cts. About 3,000 sheep for sale, trade very dull and very few sales. Weath-ers at 2 to 3 cts, lambs at 3 to 4 cts. Large crowd at the pens and about all the cattle sold at night. The light corn crop, with little or no grass in the country and the scarcity of stock water is a good cause for low prices. With good rains feeding cattle will bring better prices.

Nominees of Democratic Convention in 23rd Judicial Convention.

This district is composed of the counties of Estill, Lee, Wolfe, Breathitt and Magoffin, whose aggregate vote was 26.

A convention to nominate successors to Judge D. B. Redwine to our Attorney, A. F. Byrd met at Beattyville on Tuesday, September 15. The meeting was called to order by G. S. Miller of Breathitt, chairman of the district. Judge Redwine was nominated for temporary chairman, and Glen Sublette, editor of Salyersville News for secretary. Committees on Resolutions, credentials and permanent organization were appointed. The temporary organization was made permanent and the following elected as Campaign committee: O. H. Pollard, Jackson, Chas. Friend, Irvine; F. A. Lyon, Beattyville; D. D. Sublette, Salyersville; S. M. Tutt, Campton.

NOMINATIONS:

N. W. McGill, of Magoffin, nominated D. D. Sublette, of Salyersville, for Circuit Judge; J. F. Sutton, of Lee, nominated Judge Robert Riddell, as Judge Riddell had received the instruction of Estill, 5, Lee 3, Wolfe 5, Breathitt 5, total 21, and D. D. Sublette of Magoffin 5, the latter withdrew from the race and in an enthusiastic speech pledged his support, and moved that the nomination of Judge Riddell be made unanimous. The chair appointed O. H. Pollard, J. F. Sutton and D. D. Sublette a committee to notify Judge Riddell and escort him to the stand. In a brief speech the Judge thanked the Democrats of the district for the confidence reposed in him, promised an impartial administration if elected, and pledged himself to faithful service. We are pleased to state that Judge Riddell is very popular both with his own party and with Republicans. He is regarded as the deliverer of the people from the embarrassing condition of affairs dominant in some sections of the district. He is a man of recognized ability, and unimpaired character, a man in whom the people have confidence; hence it is that many Republicans are expected to vote for him. He is not a novice. Our best wishes attend him.

ATTORNEY.

The candidates were James K. Roberts of Lee nominated by J. F. Sutton; Augustus Arnett, of Magoffin, by N. W. McGill; C. C. Fulk, of Wolfe, by W. O. Mize; T. F. Cope, of Breathitt, by O. H. Pollard. These nominations were seconded by Geo. Calmes, Branch Higgins, A. H. Stamper and J. H. Blanton.

A motion carried to drop the hindmost man on 30th and succeeding ballots. On this ballot the vote stood Cope 7, Roberts 7, Fulk 62 Arnett 52. Cope was next dropped. Then Fulk and Robert tied, each till 26 ballots when convention adjourned for supper. At 27 ballot Fulk withdrew and Cope again entered. Breathitt and Wolfe voted 13 for him, Estill, Lee and Magoffin giving 13 for Roberts.

From 29 to 39 other men were voted for. Estill and Lee wavered not in its advocacy of Roberts casting solid their 8 votes for him, Wolfe county also voted 12-5 for Roberts 33 5 for Fulk.

A motion to adjourn till Thursday morning was lost. On 40th ballot of the vote was Cope: Breathitt 5, Wolfe 3, Magoffin 5, Wolfe 12 total, 14; necessary to a choice a fraction over 13.

A speech by Roberts and others and the "love feast" closed.

COMMENTS.

Some ladies attended the sessions. We noticed as delegates in the convention some Democrats who for a few years have not been active in the party's councils. We welcome them again into the fold.

C. C. Fulk had not been known as in the race until on Saturday at the Wolfe county convention. When A. H. Stamper saw fit to withdraw Fulk saw fit to enter and proved to be a competitor for the honor. He made a stirring speech after his withdrawal. Stamper remarked that he saw his mistake in withdrawing.

It seems that the men who "saw wood and say nothing" had their eyes on Roberts as the man and he got there. We gather facts and make observations. We are not skillful in political matters but would like to suggest to some of the campaigners that under some conditions a little less thunder and lightning, cyclone and bell would add to the strength of the party. If a Republican is disposed to walk on Democratic paths for a while, why confront him with the gates of hell because of what he may previously have advocated. In fact some Democrats are not the hoined and hooped creatures which they were supposed by some to have been a few years ago.

The outlook for Riddell and Roberts is encouraging.

There were in the convention no committee delegations, and no scraps.

Alas! Alas! some who are seeking and were seeking and probably will seek public favor had slipped too often of mountain dew. Gentlemen, fellow Democrats, Republicans we have no approval of the bar-room, whiskey drinking, electioneering and are free to say that no man is worthy of political preferment who can not control his drink for strong drink. The time is coming when in politics and business affairs the drunkard must and will be sidetracked. We saw nothing in the ruling of chairman Redwine with which any one could find fault.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republicans in the Legislative district composed of the counties of Breathitt, Lee and Magoffin met in Beattyville on Sunday as the Judicial Convention and nominated Lon Spicer, of Lee. He was the only candidate. His Democratic opponent is Carl Day, of Breathitt.

KENTUCKY IS AFTER THE AWARDS.

Best of the State's Famous Horses, Choicest of its Cattle Breeds, and the Winning Herds of Swine and Flocks of Sheep to be Sent to the Greatest of All World's Fairs.

A preliminary prize list, with rules and regulations for the government of and a reading of prizes in the department of live stock at the World's Fair next year, has just been issued by Chief F. D. O'Brien. The number of prizes offered for each breed by the exposition is as follows:

Twelve breeds of best and dual purpose cattle, 2,852 prizes.

Four breeds of dairy cattle, 540 prizes.

Nineteen breeds of horses, 2,458 prizes.

Eleven breeds of swine, 2,772 prizes.

Fourteen breeds of sheep, 2,548 prizes.

Three hundred and seventy-five varieties of poultry and pigeons, 10,900 prizes.

Fifty-seven breeds of dogs, 2,604 prizes.

In addition to these there are 22 prizes for single cows and birds etc.

D. R. O. ROSE, Chairman of the Kentucky Fair Association, Kentucky Fair Association, entered in the dairy demonstration, five for oxen, $5 for mules and $10 for the estimated displays of pet stock, vehicles, etc.

The money will be divided as follows:

Division A—Horses, Ponies, Jacks, Jennies and Mules.....$2,640

Division B—Cattle.....64,800

Division C—Sheep and Goats.....42,800

Division D—Swine.....32,160

Division E—Poultry.....$11,788

Pigeons and Pet Stock 4,214

Division F—Dogs.....7,600

Prospective and Contingent exhibits.....3,335

$260,000

The live stock exhibit opens with horses, mules and jacks on the 22nd of August and will continue two weeks. After an intermission of one week for the purpose of thoroughly renovating and decorating the stalls, the cattle exhibit commences September 12, continuing two weeks. Then on October 5 the hogs and sheep are on exhibition, and commencing the 24th of October, two weeks will be allotted to poultry and dogs. Championship for horses is said to be the most complete for which the breed ever exhibited and premiums are offered for every class and every size that the management could possibly provide for. The ring in the amphitheatre will be 250 by 400 feet.

All the stall room, and there is a total of 2,000 stalls, is free. The present plans of the Kentucky Fair Association contemplate paying the expenses of all Kentucky stock sent to the World's Fair for exhibition purposes. In addition to this the Association hopes to offer an appropriate medal for each winner among Kentucky stock.

THE SALVATION ARMY

In Breath and Other Agencies for Good.

With every other citizen of the Commonwealth, I rejoice in every effort to bring peace and all the blessings of the Gospel to a divided and discouraged people. I honor this great organization for its noble self-denial and its world-wide efforts for fallen humanity. God has crowned it with signal victories in many lands and languages.

With long knowledge of the mountain people to whom this mission is directed, I may be pardoned for stating two things.

The first is, those people cannot be effectually reached or permanently benefited by an excursion through their country. This experiment has been tried again and again.

Some twenty three years ago George O. Barnes, one of Kentucky's most gifted sons and successful evangelists, made a tour through the mountains, holding great meetings in every county seat. Thousands of people attended the services and many probably were reached by the Gospel, but no permanent change was made in any community and not a single church was built as the result.

The reason is obvious.

The good impressions soon died out, the multitudes returned to their former mode of living. No provision was made to reach the children or continue the good work which began and ended in a week.

The next generation did not know even the name of the great preacher. Satan was left in possession of the field, and the dreadful result has shocked the country and disgraced the Commonwealth.

The Great Master said "Go, teach all nations." A nation cannot be taught in a week—the most difficult and important of all sciences—the science of salvation.

It must be done line upon line, precept upon precept, with patience and perseverance.

If the Salvation Army will become an army of occupation and pitch its tents in every town and hamlet and teach the Gospel to young and old they will conquer the country, and the next generation will be a different one from the present.

May I be pardoned for saying this is the plan of campaign of the Industrial Mission (the Society of Saint Winners).

Since 1897 it has had an increasing number of consecrated and Godly men and women, preachers and teachers at work summer and winter in the Allegheny and Cumberland mountains. They preach on Sunday and teach all the week.

This present year there have been seventy-five of these faithful workers scattered over the most destitute portions of the mountains teaching the Gospel to these long-neglected countrymen.

Many of the most accomplished women from the North and South have given their time and labor to this blessed work.

Thousands of children and older people have learned a better way of living and loving God and their fellow men.

It is a great undertaking to change the character of a whole people, but it can be done and has been done. But it takes time and patience and charity and courage to do it.

Those mountain people are to be pitied, maybe, more than they are to be blamed.

The great majority of them never had a chance to be better. With no schools but those of vice and no associates but the vicious, where neither God was feared nor His law regarded, is it any wonder they are Godless and lawless?

The object of this mission is to give them a chance. To their credit be it said they are not only willing but anxious to have it and embrace it with gratitude.

The second word will be shorter. It is that we Kentuckians should not expect foreigners to do what we ought to do ourselves.

Certainly it cannot be denied that it is our duty to give these people, our mountain neighbors, the Gospel. Nor can it be contended that we are not able. We are glad to have the help of the Salvation Army and of any others. But these cannot do our duty nor absolve us from the responsibility. And it will be a fearful reckoning for those who shirk it, when the King comes to divide those who feed the hungry, clothe the naked and give the Gospel to the perishing ones, from those who refuse.

On which side will you stand in that great day? If you want to help, the treasurer of this Industrial Mission is Maj. Robert S. Bullock of Fayette National Bank, Lexington, Ky. The president is your humble servant,

EDWARD O. GUERKANT,

Wilmore, Ky.

IN MEMORY

Of Claudia Ringo, Who Died at Manila, May 4, 1902.

For my country's cause I have given up my dearest boy. A noble son was he, ever ready to answer mother's call. To him the hills about home clad with pine green forests had an inspiration close a kin to the chants of the trained musicians, and the rippling waters of crystal clearness in their course to the sea sang songs telling him of a glorious future with an ever-loving God. Kentucky hills and valleys, blue grass fields, fleet horses, and beautiful women, the moon and stars of the evening, the birds of the air and fishes of the sea enlisted his admiration and gave evidence of undying love for home. But when the call for battle came he wanted to go to the front because he loved our flag and wanted to show that love even to death. It was hard to say good-bye. I knew the danger, but when I looked into those loving eyes and saw the manly form with the health glow on his cheeks, I was hopeful of seeing my boy again. But alas! the sad, sad news from the brave boy. Comrades said he was sick, no mother to love him there, no touch to soothe his fevered brow. Then came the final and inevitable. Your boy is dead.

Can it be my boy is dead? No, he only sleeps to awake on resurrection day when I shall meet him. The good chaplain said: "Your boy was ready to go and met death's struggle valiantly, yielding only as a brave soldier." We have walked the earth together, we have trusted only in Christ's blood, and after a while we shall meet in Heaven, where this heavy heart will be glad and joyous with the boy of my love throughout an endless eternity.

Paine's Celery Compound CURES RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism, which does its terrible work in the muscles, joints, and tissues, is caused by acid which gathers in the blood. To get rid of this poisonous acid which produces the irritations, pains, agonies, inflammations, and swellings peculiar to rheumatism, Paine's Celery Compound should be used without delay. No other medicine gives such prompt, clearing, and happy results. It is the only medicine that prevents a return of the dreaded disease. Paine's Celery Compound braces the nerves, the blood is quickly cleared of all irritating poisons, tissue and muscle are built up, and the digestive organs perfectly toned. Do not trust with indifference the slightest rheumatic symptoms; the early use of Paine's Celery Compound will save you weeks and months of suffering. Mr. S. D. Conway, St. Louis, Mo., was permanently cured by Paine's Celery Compound after repeated failures with other medicines and physicians. He says: "I am 64 years of age, and have lived in St. Louis 27 years, and all this time with the exception of three years, I have served in the Engineers' Department as Inspector. Last winter I contracted rheumatism and was laid up. I tried all remedies and doctors, but all failed until I took Paine's Celery Compound, which has made a permanent cure in my case. I have recommended it to many, and they have used it with the same result."
